

INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT

-  To seek our customers' satisfaction by offering them high quality products that meet with the requirements of food safety and quality, also according to the legal requirements and always enhancing our manufacturing.
-  To promote a continuous skills development to our employees, contributing for a healthy and motivated team.
-  To protect the environment, preventing pollution, respecting the environment legislation and aware our employees.
-  To provide a safe and healthy working place, being able to identify the risks that may affect our employees, keeping controlling actions, monitoring and preventing accidents and occupational diseases.
-  To commit with the social responsibility principles, through the national legislation service and international labor conventions, in order to provide best quality of life for our employees and communities.